DESIGNER'S NOTE

This portfolio is a reflection of the design journey we've shared – a process shaped by dialogue, trust, and intention. Each curve, each surface, each corner speaks to that process, embodying a sense of care and clarity. Beyond the visuals, it captures the essence of collaboration and the pursuit of spaces that feel considered and true to those who live in them.

Thank you for the trust placed in us throughout this process. It has been a privilege to design a space that reflects a shared vision and refined execution.

PROJECT OVERVIEW & DESIGN CONCEPT

The design studies the balance between contrast and restraint. Curved forms and a measured color palette define a clear visual language of cool greys, muted blacks, and textured materials.

Every part of these interiors – from spatial layout to surface detail – was developed to create comfort and function. Built-in storage, rounded edges, and flexible work areas make these spaces practical and cohesive.

DESIGN NARRATIVE

The interior is defined by the relationship between form and function. Curved furniture and integrated millwork introduce softness and precision, shaping each zone. The arrangement of volumes establishes movement and continuity, while controlled contrasts in color and finish articulate the transition between spaces. The result is a composition that feels deliberate – a spatial framework designed to support contemporary living through proportion.

PALETTE & MATERIAL INTENT

The palette is guided by tonal harmony - varying shades of grey, soft blue, and muted black expressed through gloss and matte finishes. Each material was chosen for its consistency and subtle variation, highlighting texture and contrast.

Smooth vegan leather and polished metallic accents introduce a measured sense of depth while preserving cohesion throughout the project.

FENG SHUI OVERVIEW

A well-balanced home influences how we move, think, and rest. This home's layout draws from the principles of Feng Shui, prioritizing flow, clarity, and continuity. Circulation follows natural movement, creating open pathways while maintaining a defined sense of separation between zones. Soft curves guide transitions, and consistent lighting supports focus and restoration. Each area feels anchored yet open, shaped by the thoughtful use of proportion and light.

THE VISUAL STORY

The visual story illustrates how form, color, and material relationships define the atmosphere of each space. The design process focused on creating rooms that are composed, functional, and comfortable to inhabit. Each decision, from the scale of a piece to the tone of a material, contributes to a unified experience that feels consistent.

The following mood boards have helped us define the character of each area, outlining the details that shape the identity of the home. Together, they form a visual framework that connects the spaces and communicates the overall intent of the project.

LIVING ROOM & DINING AREA

• ———

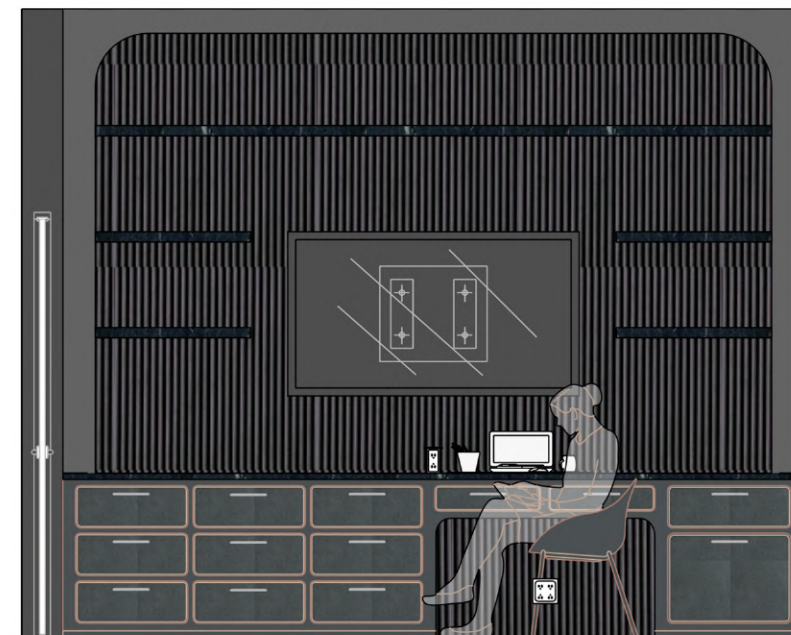

The living and dining areas introduce the project's visual language through curved forms, quiet symmetry, and a palette of deep blue, light grey, and black. Rounded profiles and matte finishes create continuity between zones, guiding movement from shared spaces to more private corners. These rooms form the core of the home, designed to encourage interaction while maintaining a sense of order and comfort.

PRIMARY BEDROOM

• ———

The primary bedroom combines structure and refinement through tailored millwork and precise detailing. Contrasts between furniture pieces – from dark tones to lighter finishes – create visual depth, complemented by the varied textures of wallpaper and surface treatments. A built-in wall unit incorporates a discreet workspace, while the upholstered bed anchors the room and a custom armchair offers a place to pause. The composition brings together material richness and measured order, forming a setting defined by thoughtful control.

GUEST BEDROOM

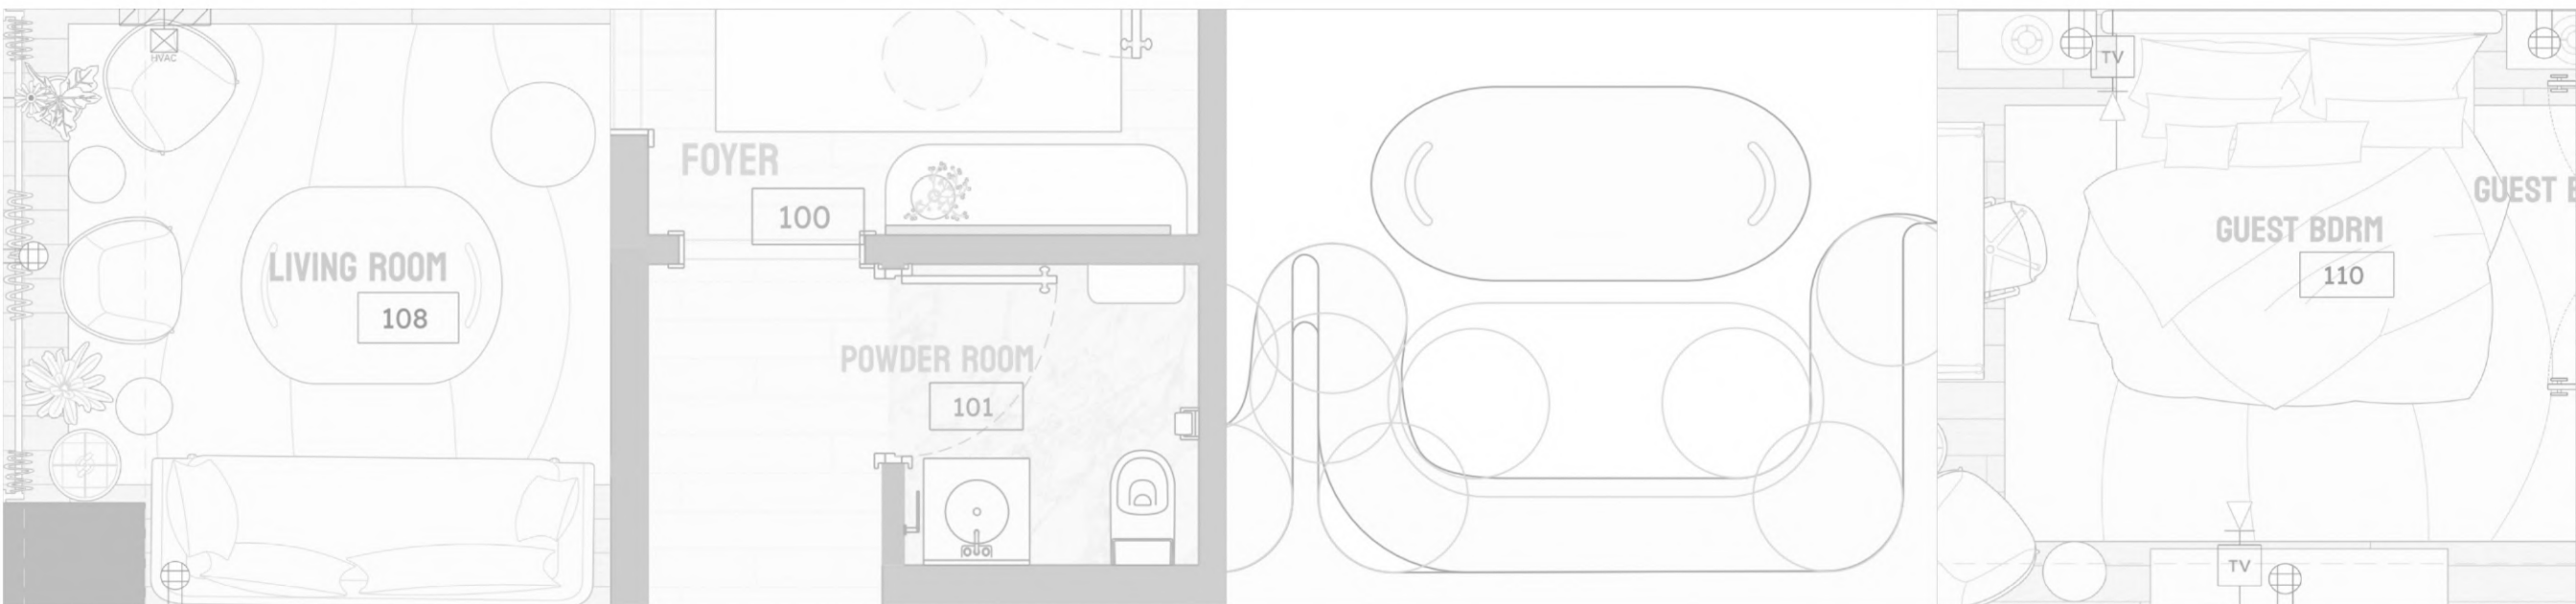

The guest bedroom is conceived as a complete and carefully detailed space, designed with the same level of consideration as the main areas. An upholstered bed grounds the composition, accompanied by a freestanding desk and chair that introduce a functional workspace. A single reading chair adds a softer presence, balancing the room's structured layout. Variations in color and texture bring depth to the smaller scale, giving the space a distinct yet cohesive identity within the home.

PLANS & DETAILS

This section introduces the technical foundation of the project, including the existing plan, proposed layout, reflected ceiling plan, and paint schedule. These drawings reveal how form, light, and material are coordinated to bring the concept to life.

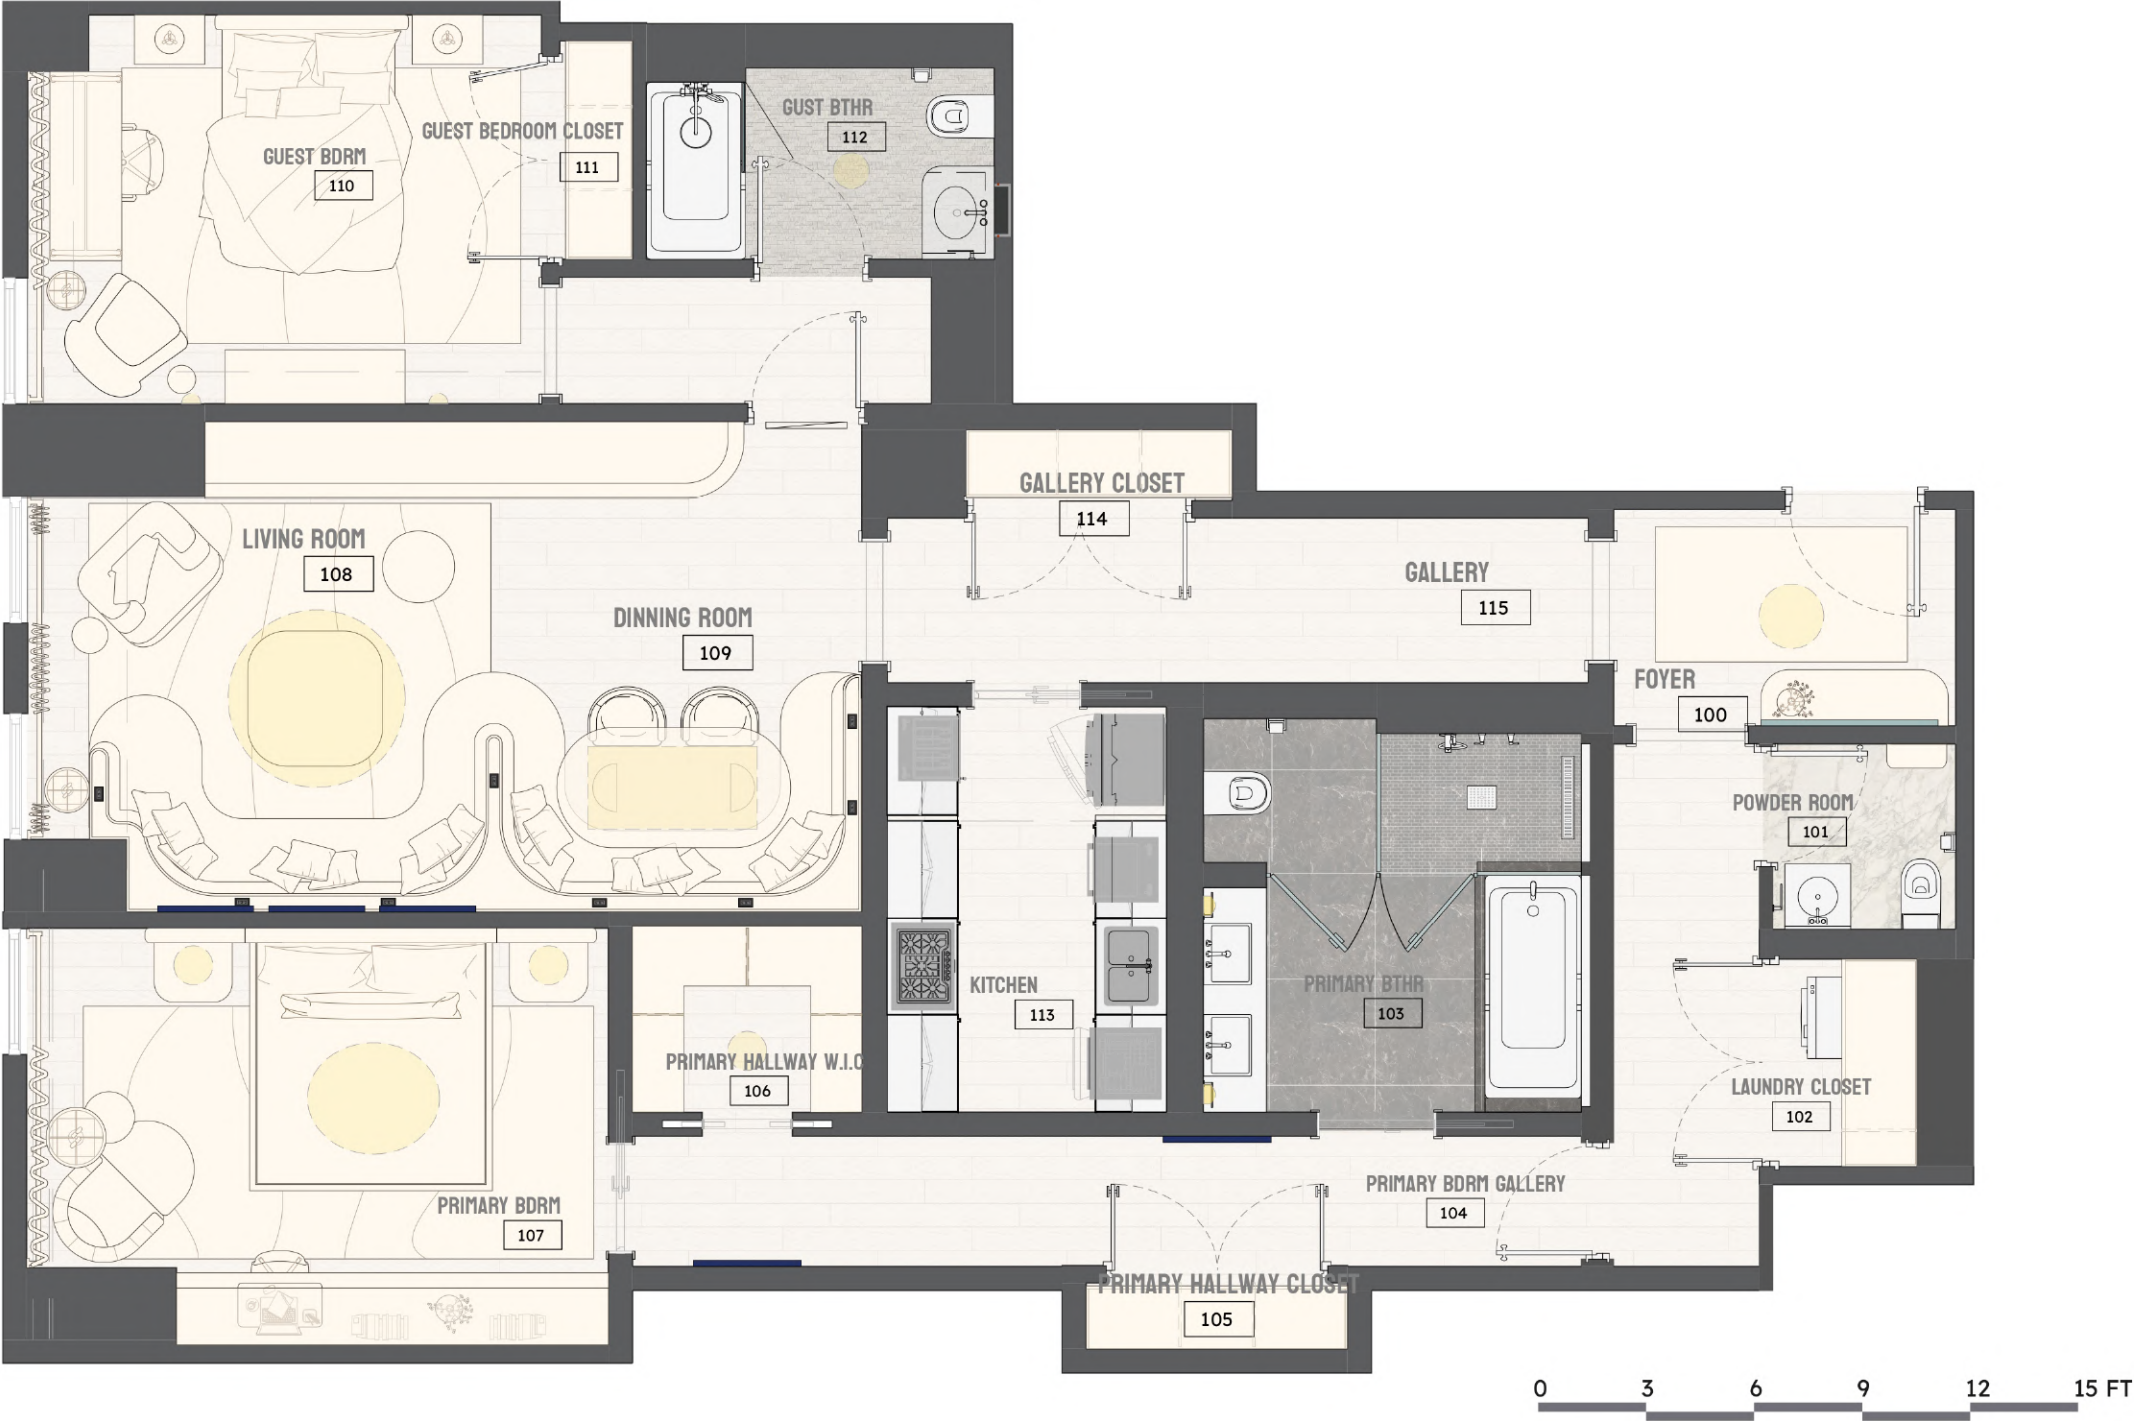

Each object is both a work of art and an engineering feat.

THE CRAFT

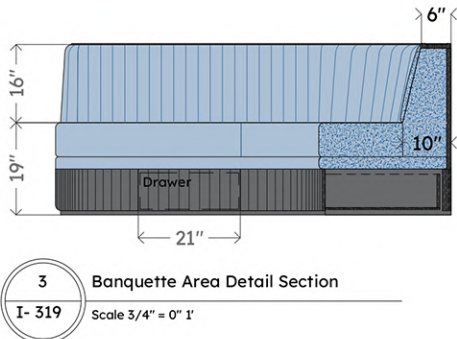

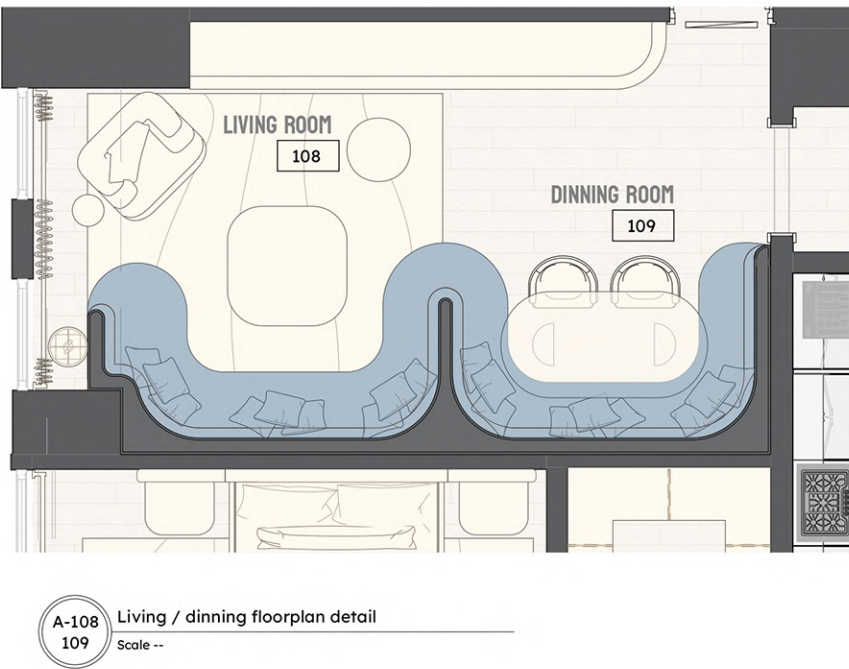

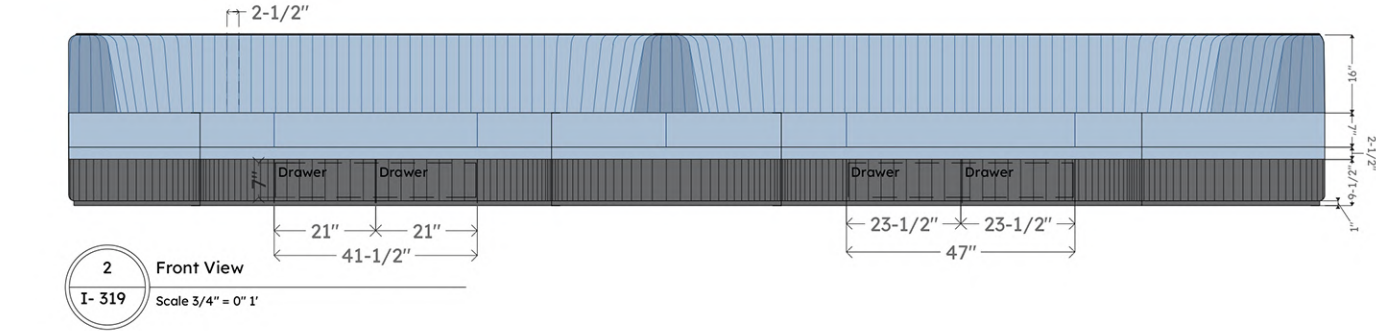

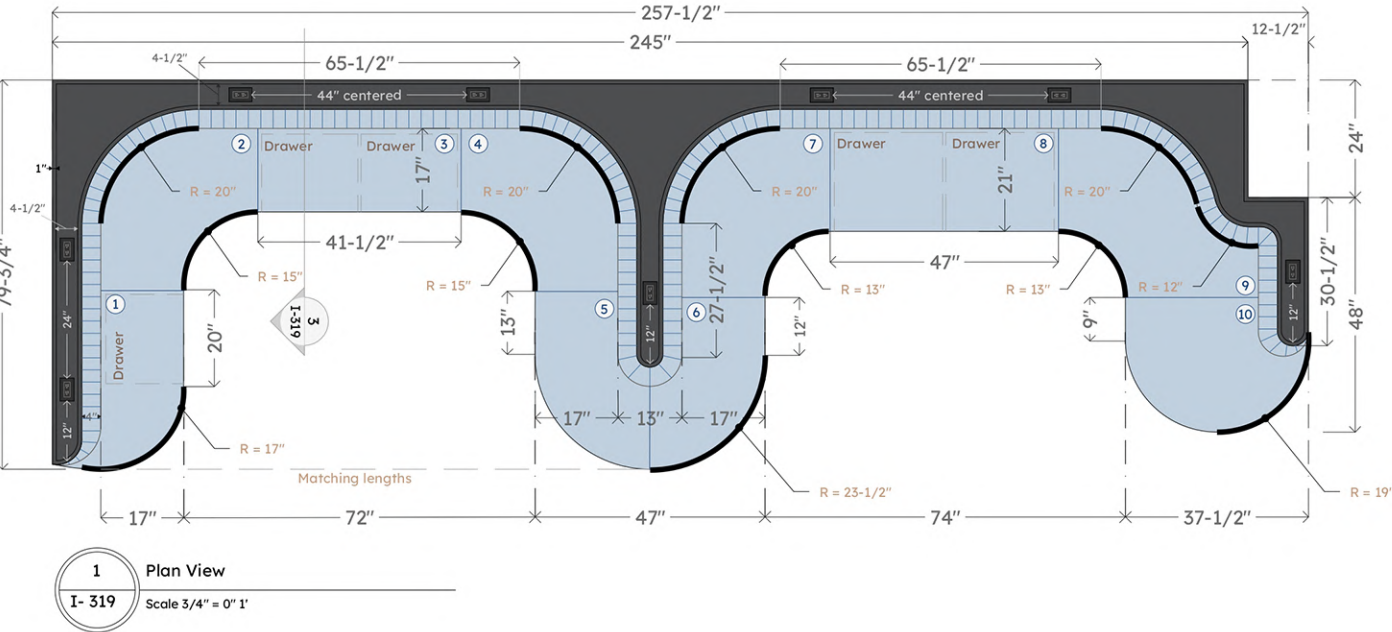

This section highlights the custom pieces designed specifically for the project. From the built-in wall unit and banquette to the bespoke furnishings, each element was created to meet the client's needs for comfort, function, and visual continuity.

Every piece reflects Studio Kestrel's design language – curved forms, softened edges, and a measured palette that complements the home's calm, contemporary character.

GALLERY

The gallery shows a series of before-and-after moments that highlight how light, material, and proportion can redefine a space. Each composition reflects the intention to bring clarity, balance, and calm. The transformation focused on creating a fully tailored interior, composed almost entirely of custom-designed furnishings. Together, these changes reveal a consistent intention: to create spaces that feel open, balanced, and human.

REFLECTIONS & CONTINUITY

This project came together through steady collaboration and attention to detail. From early planning to final installation, every decision was resolved with purpose. The finished home reflects that process – uniting technical rigor and thoughtful design in a space made to support daily life.

We hope this space becomes the setting for many meaningful moments ahead. We are grateful to have contributed to the design of your home and would be honored to be considered for future projects or recommended to others.
